

Team:

Amir Kashipazha

Shen Huang

Yan Li

Title:

Event Create and Share

Description:

A website that help people to create events to look for people for doing interested activities like hiking, biking, reading book, or watching movies. The event creator can ask for advices for the activity and request for required equipment for the activity. Also, people can search for events they interested in and make comments on the events.

Functionality:

person can log in person can create an event - place

person can join an event

person can make comments on an event

person can create a place - add description - add pictures person can add tags

person can search for an event

admin can delete an event

admin can delete an place

admin can edit the place